

Dear juries and IE School of Architecture and Design.

I am pleased to apply for a master's degree in (IE Master in Architecture (MArch)), as the content of this master's degree is remarkable and suitable for what I am looking for as it combines education and training and focuses on the idea of sustainability.

I am an architect. I studied at Al-Zaytoonah University of Jordan. During my studies there, I worked on many individual and group projects. These tasks allowed me to become a great team player and taught me how to work well in different, fast-paced environments that depend on the distribution of time in a distinctive way.

During my studies, I worked on many different projects, and at the graduation stage I worked on a project for low-income people in Al-Wehdat camp. This project participated in many local awards and won the third place award in the (2022 Isustain award) competition, which is an award at the level of Arab countries, where he participated. 86 projects from 7 countries, the project was under the supervision of one of the most important architects in the Middle East and Arab countries, the architect Ayman Zuaiter.

After graduation, I started working in one of the most important and largest companies in the field of garden design and sustainable urban design, where I was working in the stages of analysis, design, drawing, quantity calculation and supervision, and during my work I worked on more than 15 different projects, including private houses and public gardens And resorts and urban design in more than 4 countries in the Middle East.

This opportunity will allow me to share all my knowledge and learning with people from all over the world, which gives us the possibility to develop a great deal of knowledge.

In addition, this opportunity will contribute to getting to know different societies, cultures, and cities, which contributes to the development of my relationships and personality, and it will be a unique experience.

Thank you for considering my application. I hope this is to your liking.

Best regards
