

MOTIVATION LETTER

Dear Admissions Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Master's in Architecture program at IE university in Spain. As someone who has always been passionate about design and the built environment, I believe that this program would provide me with the perfect opportunity to further my education and pursue my career goals in the field of architecture.

Throughout my undergraduate studies in architecture, I have developed a strong foundation in design principles, building technology, and project management. I have also had the opportunity to work on various design projects, both in studio and in the field, which have allowed me to gain hands-on experience and hone my skills.

What particularly excites me about the Master's in Architecture program at IE university is its focus on sustainable design and the use of cutting-edge technology. I believe that these are essential aspects of modern architecture, and I am eager to learn more about them through the program's curriculum and research opportunities.

In addition, I am drawn to the opportunity to study in Spain, a country with a rich architectural heritage and a thriving contemporary architecture scene. I am confident that studying in this environment would provide me with a unique perspective on architecture and would greatly enhance my education.

I am confident that my passion for architecture, combined with my solid educational background and hands-on experience, make me a strong candidate for the Master's in Architecture program at IE university. I look forward to the opportunity to contribute to the program and to further my education in this field.

Thank you for considering my application.

Sincerely,

Ayush Patel.
