

Barrancabermeja, Colombia, 31/01/22

I write this letter for you, in order to freely express my feelings of wanting to achieve this great leap for my professional life, which can help me as an architect to focus on giving priority to the wishes and needs of the people who require my ability to , produce sensations and experiences in the inhabited space, which is why I want to access the Master in Strategic Interior Design (MSID) at IE.

I am an open-minded person who looks for a way to learn every day with the motivation of being able to make small leaps, but giants in terms of my love for architecture, with the purpose of leaving a creative mark for life itself.

I am interested and motivated to get to know and enjoy its facilities in order to take advantage of what I can be as a person, an architect and, above all, fully grow my way of seeing and doing architecture, all this with the aim of giving myself to the city, to the culture, to the program to respond to you with my returned gratitude.

To finish, I appreciate the opportunity to read me and take the time to offer a dream to people who want and yearn to improve every day, beforehand I wish them the best energy in the world. And finally, my ability, will make them take advantage of me and enjoy my way of seeing beyond, in order to materialize people's dreams.
