

The Talent Nursery School is an incredibly simple building, with unscheduled interstitial spaces that allow each child's passion to be discovered and encouraged. It allows it to adapt to the constant innovation changes caused by each type of talent. The glass walls reflect the concept of transparency. Everyone can see what talent is developing in that space and interact with each other in the social center of the Nursery School.